ACTION AFTER THE ELECTION:

It is Said That Governor Black Will Consider the Petition as Soon as the Campaign Is

Over

John Y. McKane has petitioned Governo Black for restoration to citizenship. The petition was received at the Executive Mansion in Albany last week and was carefully laid away for consideration after elec-

Governor Black refused to pardon Mc-Kane, although strong influence was brought to bear upon him from many sections of the State. It is said that Senator Platt, Lou Payn and Jacob Worth, whose enmity McKane provoked during his politteal supremacy at Gravesend, visited the Governor and asked that Executive elemency be exercised and McKnne be granted a pardon upon the eve of the completion of his sentence. Supreme Court Jestice William J. Gaynor, who was chiefly re-sponsible for the political downfail of the oney Island "Boss," also made a plea over his own signature for the freedom of Mc-

Kane. It was all to no avail.

Governor Morton had been appealed to previously with the same result, although a blind son and little daughter begged the tievernor to give their farher his treedom that he might again brighten the house-hold.

e friends of McKane who have the ment in hand for his restoration to make, have received encouragement tent to make them hopefully enthuce. It is declared positively that Gov-Black has intimated that he will conthe matter immediately after elec-

petition of McKane recites that he his full sentence for any wrong he have committed; that the law has apheld in his punishment; that he has, his helease, lived an honest and uplife that would reflect credit upon tizen; that he has been engaged in intracting and building business, but her that he is not a citizen militates to bim in a business way and interwith the proper maintenance of his

FLATBUSH HAS A GRAND NEW ORGAN

It is in the Dutch Reformed Church and Will Be Dedicated on Next Sunday.

The new organ of the Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church, probably the wealthlest society on Long Island, was completed yeserday, and will be dedicated next Sunthy morning. The Dutch Church was established more than one hundred years ago, and part of the original structure is bodied in the present stately and tall-embodied in the present stately and tall-spired house of worship. The pastor, the Rev. Cornelius L. Wells, will present an appropriate sermon, and a very chaborate musical programme will be interpreted by organist George Francis Morse and a quarter and chorus of trained singers.

The organ is one of the largest in the city, and cost $11,000. The organ case is hardwood, with Roman gold decoration. The organ contains forty stops. The mechanism is electric, and the blowing is done by a large electric motor. Combinations of stops can be obtained by sixaply pressing the proper buttons. The greater part of the organ is enclosed in a box, thus enabling the player to get crescendo effects on almost the entire organ, a feature which organists have been craving for years. The builders have succeeded in producing same tone colorings which are usually heard only from the great organs of English and French cathedrais.

The choir, which will assist in the dedication of the organ, is composed of Miss Marion Walker, sourance Miss Louise Borchers, alto: G. K. Harroun, Jr., tenor, and Prenchs Christield bass.
